

Tammie M Lilly

Tammie M Lilly, a Wife, Mother, Business Owner, and Author. Born in Marshall, Texas, Tammie has always considered herself a child of God. She graduated from Jefferson High School in Portland, Oregon. She received a Computer Operations Specialist Certificate from Western Business College in Portland, which is now Everest College. After receiving certification she moved back to Houston and begun building a family and career.

Currently, Tammie resides in Hempstead, Texas where she owns KRC Tax and Business Services and is married to Pastor Nickelberry Lilly and they have 6 beautiful children (Rodney, Claudette, Kelvin, Kenneth, Kendalle, and Kenshelle). Motherhood is very important to Tammie, she embraces the beauty of each of her children's personalities, each of them has their own identity and self-expression.

For over 20 years Tammie has worked in the Tax Industry, but in 2012, she established KRC Tax and Business Services where she practices tax preparation and credit restoration services. Her dedication to the industry influenced authoring three books titled "What The IRS Won't Tell You" and "Why Your Refund Is So Low" and "Prayers For The Boss Babes", which is a book collaboration of prayers and devotionals.

In the past couple of years, Tammie has been the Administrator of 5 very large Social Media Pages dedicated to Black-Owned Businesses and Retail Development, two of them being "Texas Black Business Women" where she has over 25K Group Members and "Working Women Network" that is rapidly growing.

Tammie understands the need for an organization like BOB Rewards Club that provides business development services to vulnerable businesses when needed the most. As the Vice-President, she brings vision and knowledge to the organization.